

March 2015

Giti Tire Breaks Ground for First Plant in North America

The first North America plant for Giti Tire will produce passenger and light truck tires for the replacement and original equipment markets. It is expected to be operational in 2017.

Read More

Next Generation GT Radial Commercial Tires Coming in 2015

Giti Tire is kicking off 2015 with some really exciting news! Starting in January and running through midyear, the company will be introducing five new state-of-the-art, next-generation GT Radial commercial tires in North America.

Read More

High Quality Truck and Bus Wheels Available for GT Radial Dealers

Giti Tire is adding aluminum cast alloy truck and bus wheels to its North American commercial product portfolio in 2015. Seven Brand aluminum cast alloy truck and bus wheels will be available to GT Radial commercial dealers in mid 2015.

Read More

Tips for Evaluating Truck Tire Casings for Retreadability

With the plethora of tire brands available to trucking fleets these days, determining which ones have quality casings for retreading can be daunting, but should not be. There is no reason for fleet managers to make subjective judgments about casing quality.

Read More

Welcome to the Team, Glen Hutson

It gives us great pleasure to announce that Glen Hutson has joined our GITI Tire (USA) Team as Regional Sales Manager – South Central Region, as of Tuesday 9-16-2014.

Read More